

CANADIAN VEHICLE MARKINGS:

A look at the markings, colour schemes and vehicles of the Canadian Army.

Part 15: Grizzly Tanks at Camp Borden/Meaford Ranges, Ontario, 1944

All three of these vehicles are well worn and used (constant training will do that) and have no external stowage or personal kit.

Formation Sign:

Camp Borden

The official document indicating crests allocated to home force military districts and divisions says that the white portion of the Camp Borden badge (left) should be light blue. The photo that I have clearly shows a white centre. You choose!
